TOUR ANNOUNCEMENT - I'm delighted to announce that I will be touring Australia next month from 29th May - 10th June as special guest opening for one of Ireland's finest singers BRIAN KENNEDY. First show in Brisbane, finishing in Perth and includes a return to The National Celtic Festival Australia Official in Port Arlington, Victoria, I had such a good time there last year. I'll be road testing new songs for my Pozible funded album.

Brian sang with Van Morrison for numerous years, has had chart topping albums in Ireland, and is renowned for his amazing vocal. His latest studio album release 'A Love Letter To Joni' is a tribute to Joni Mitchell. Speaking about his Canadian Hero, Brian said: "When I realised Joni Mitchell was about to turn 70 last year I immediately wanted to honour her big birthday and her continued influence on me as an Artist by carefully selecting and recording 10 of my favourite songs of hers." ## “Wall of Silence”

Dina Hanhan publishing a new novel, "Wall of Silence". It is the seventh issue.

She spoke with her son, said:

What a destiny, smelling torment?

Pain is a vehemence, that hugs you? Do not hug it!

Embrace it, if it did not free you.

Pain is a coincidence, its ribbon black colour, melancholic is the tune of its lap.

Do fight it.

It is coming to my recollection the Nun, De Lord. An angel that revealed to me when I stayed alone awaiting your arrival to the second homeland. I am not sure how she appeared to me or where did she come from, all that I knew and remember was the chills that went through my body when her hand touched mine. A hand that I know and do not know. A touch that I had before, and maybe not. Yes, it reminded me of the touch of my grandmother "Jamila" blessed be her soul.

I started writing the novel directly in the aftermath of the death of my son "Basim" in 2014.

4EB Youth Forum 2015

The annual 4EB youth Forum was held on Saturday the 9th of May. The event was well attended and was a great opportunity for our young broadcasters to network and share ideas in the ever changing landscape of radio. The group played games, participated in workshops and heard from key-note speakers Sarah Lio-Willie and May Yuen. Participants came from many different groups including Oxygen, Irish, Fresh Crew, Chinese, Multicultural and Samoan amongst others. A big thank you to Janice Wu for organising the event and Irene Tavutavu for catering.

Final preparations before the car-park opening on the 20th of April, which was opened by the Mayor of Brisbane Graham Quirk. If you missed it check out the mini movie on the 4EB Facebook page. Many thanks to Levale and Rocco and Will Penisi who stopped by to help out with moving the nine metres of soil. Thanks very much!

2015 Buddha Festival

It's been 14 years that the Chinese Group have been invited to the Buddha Festival to do live broadcasting. This year was a little bit different due to a different stage, which was closer to the river. The O.B. van was parked 50m from the stage which was a long distance, thanks to 4EB Super technician Niyi for helping us set up everything from the stage to the O.B. van, and without Niyi's help the Chinese group would not have been able to complete our live broadcast for Buddha festival.

The Cantonese program (10:15 am-11:00 am) was the first program broadcast on the main stage, DJ Gary, DJ Gordon and DJ Jacqueline did very well with their interview's and presented a wonderful live program as well.

From 1:30 pm to 2:10 pm, the Chinese group provided a singing and dance performance, from the Rank Tsui Dance School. Lots of people were taking photos of us with the 4EB O.B. van and we had a lot of people asking about membership as well.

At 2:30 pm, the band called "Underground Apples" (DJ Jacqueline is also the keyboard player of the band) The Mandarin program began their live broadcast from the stage after 3pm, DJ Elsa was the MC for this program which had a band and dance performance (from DJ Judy's group) and games with the public. DJ Michael and DJ KC worked very hard at the O.B. van to giving out 4EB information.

Thanks again to 4EB for this unforgettable live broadcasting experience, it is a pleasure to be part of 4EB FM.
